8th October 2015

Dear parents/Carers

I am writing with very mixed emotions. It's great news for Mrs Gleadhill, but sad news for school, as she's retiring at the end of this half term. Her last day in school will be Friday 23rd October.

Mrs Gleadhill has been a member of staff at Dore Primary since 1999 and has provided warmth and security for all children at Dore at some stage during their school life. In addition to her official role in school she has been part of the Westminster trip as well as taking part in residentials and numerous enrichment activities.

We know you will join us in wishing her a healthy and happy retirement, which in her words will mainly consist of being a lady of leisure, although a little bird tells me the day after she retires she's going to Amsterdam!

A temporary replacement, Mrs Michelle Hill, is in place for after the holidays.

Best wishes to Mrs Gleadhill from everyone at Team Dore

Mrs Lynnette Glossop
(Headteacher)
